ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1911.

In this year there will be two eclipses, both of the Sun.

I. The first is a total eclipse of the Sun, April 28th, visible in the eastern United States as a partial eclipse. Along a line through Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Memphis and Galveston, the eclipse ends at sunset. Along a line following in a general way the main range of the Alleghenies, the middle of the eclipse will be attained by sunset. The path of totality is a band 66 miles wide, from the southern extremity of Australia to a point off the west coast of Central America. Greatest duration of totality, 4 minutes 57 seconds.

II. The second is an annular eclipse of the Sun, October 21st-22d, invisible in the United States, visible over Asia and Australasia. The path of the annulus extends from the Aral Sea to a point 200 miles east of New Guinea. As a partial eclipse. it begins at Tokyo, Japan, October 22d, 11 o'clock a. m., and ends at 2 o'clock p. m. Magnitude of eclipse, 0.3, increasing as the observer approaches the path of the annulus.

The calculations for this Almanac have been carefully made for the latitude of Philadelphia, and are expressed in Eastern standard time. For places not on the standard meridian and standard time is kept, the following rule applies: For places west of the 75th meridian, add in the proportion of four minutes for each degree of difference of longitude; for places east, subtract. For moon's phases, eclipses, equinoxes and solstices, simply reduce from Eastern to required standard.—A. THOS. G. APPLE.

THE PROPOSED SCHLATTER MONUMENT.

Certain gentlemen of Philadelphia interested in historical, educational and religious affairs, prominent among them Dr. Henry C. McCook, of the Presbyterian Historical Society, and Dr. Martin J. Brumbaugh, Superintendent of the Public Schools of Philadelphia, have proposed that a monument be erected to the memory of Michael Schlatter. Their interest in Schlatter is mainly in his work as an educator; the interest of the Reformed people in his work as a minister. In both callings he was an organizer. The portrait on this page is a reproduction of the proposed model of the statue. It is fashioned after the famous memorial to Pestalozzi, in Lucerne, Switzerland. Members of the Reformed Church should appreciate this proposed tribute to the organizer of their Church and lend their encouragement and substantial aid in making it a fact. The monument, judging from the model, will be a work of art. It presents Schlatter as an educator and as a minister of the Gospel. These two facts are emphasized in the details of the monument. It is proposed to erect the monument temporarily on the plaza of the City Hall of Philadelphia, until the new boulevard, leading from the City Hall to Fairmount Park, is completed, when a prominent site along that fine avenue will be selected.

OUR MISSION.

The mission of the Reformed Church is the same as the mission of the church of Jesus Christ—nothing less; nothing more. We are part of the Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church of which Jesus is the head and life. Nothing pertaining to His Church can be foreign to us. What He asks of the whole Church He asks of us. We are to be witnesses of Him to that world which lies around us; to those who naturally belong to us, but none the less to the other children of our Father living in every land under the sun. It is our duty and should be our privilege and our joy to take our share of every good work of His kingdom. The Church that lives to itself will not prosper. The Reformed Church must do more than merely care for Reformed people.

FOUR REFORMED VETERANS WHO DIED DURING 1910.

REV. DAVID E. KLOPP, D. D. REV. JOSEPH HENRY DUBBS, D. D., LL. D. REV. HENRY MOSSER, D. D. REV. E. R. ESCHBACH, D. D.

WHAT THE CHURCH EXPECTS OF HER MEMBERS.

The Church is the spiritual mother of us all, and to her we all are debtors. From her we have all freely received. And in turn it is our bounden duty to give her our loyal support in love and money and in service. We should regularly attend her service and induce others to do the same; we should pay liberally to her support; we should take our share of her work; and then, in our personal character and conduct, in every circle we enter, we should show our loyalty to the great Head of the Church.

STUDY THE FACTS.

This book contains facts worthy of close study. They will, in the first place, afford ground for thanksgiving. To the serious minded, they will be food for thought. Let us remember that the Church, like an individual, has not done her full duty until she has done her best. We have done well, maybe, but we can do better. Let us study how to do the work of the Lord; not how to get it done. "The Lord never asks how much must I do, but how much can I do?"

1862 THE MISSION HOUSE. 1912

During this year the friends of the Mission House—the German-English institution of the Reformed Church, located near Sheboygan, Wisconsin—will make an effort to raise a Jubilee Fund of $50,000, as a memorial of its semi-centennial and as a thank offering to the Lord for the blessings with which he has crowned the work of this school.

This fund will be raised before the celebration of the golden jubilee, which will take place September, 1912. A special campaign will be begun. The first part of that campaign will take place January, February and March of 1911. An effort will be made to secure a personal gift from as many individual members of the church as possible. The committee consists of Rev. J. M. G. Darms, Buffalo, N. Y., Campaign Secretary; Rev. F. C. Nott, of Milwaukee, and Elder H. W. Tuechter, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

This school, like all other Reformed schools, was founded because of the great need of ministers and particularly to provide pastors for the promising mission fields of the northwest. Ohio and Pennsylvania could not supply the demand.

Those two sons of Mercersburg, Dr. H. A. Muehlmeier and Dr. J. Bossard, in faith began to receive young men into their own homes, and clothe and feed and educate them at their own expense. The Lord has prospered their labors, and the Mission House has done a great work for which the whole Reformed Church should rejoice. To-day one hundred and ninety-five of her sons are on our ministerial roll. She has not yet completed her work. Much, very much, remains to be done. And we present her just claims to the liberality of all who read these pages. The picture of the main building of the institution and the portraits of the members of the faculty of the Mission House are found on another page.

TWO LIBERAL PATRONS OF F. AND M. COLLEGE.

GEORGE F. BAIR.

The men who give generously to our academies, colleges and seminaries are public benefactors. When their names represent honored families in the history of the church, their gifts are especially precious. We exalt such names in the hope that others in like manner may make their families illustrious in the same cause. Good gifts are twice blessed. They bless the giver as well as the object of the gift. It is no small honor to have one's family name linked with a great school—Mr. George F. Baer last June endowed the Presidency of Franklin and Marshall College; Mr. B. Frank Fackenthal, Jr., endowed the chair of biology and geology in the same school.

B. FRANK FACKENTHAL, JR.

THE THREE NEW PROFESSORS AT FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL COLLEGE.

Of the three new Professors at Franklin and Marshall College, Dr. H. M. J. Klein is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College; Dr. V. W. Dippel is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania; Prof. John Nevin Schaeffer is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College and was a Rhodes scholar at Oxford. All three are of undoubted ability and will add strength to the faculty.

MEMORIAL HALL, DAYTON, OHIO.

Of the seventy-five conventions held during 1909-10, by the Laymen's Missionary Movement in the leading cities of the United States, there were three in which the Reformed Church was strongly represented. Namely, at Harrisburg, Reading and Dayton. The above picture was taken at the opening session of the convention at Dayton, when 1,625 delegates were present. It gives an idea of how these great missionary gatherings were attended, and suggests the tremendous power the church has at her command in her strong and consecrated men.

THE WORLD'S MISSIONARY CONGRESS, EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND.

The World's Missionary Congress, in Edinburgh, Scotland, June 14-23, 1910, was a notable and significant gathering. The Archbishop of Canterbury, in his opening address, said, "This Conference is unique, not merely in missionary, but in all annals. Where and when have twelve hundred thoughtful men and women met together to contribute a like amount of knowledge acquired at first hand from every region of the world, about the forces past and present, seen and unseen, which are molding the lives of the people civilized and savage?" The above picture was taken at the opening session. Lord Balfour presided. At the left of the platform is Mr. John Mott, of America, who became permanent chairman.

PROFESSORS AND STUDENTS, NORTH JAPAN COLLEGE, SENDAI, JAPAN.

Every Sunday School should observe Foreign Mission Day on February 12th, by using the fine service of the Board and bringing in a special offering for the cause.

Our buildings and our missionaries in Japan and China compare very favorably with the best of other denominations. The foundations have been laid for a great work in the future.

The Chinese have wonderful memories. It is not unusual for inquirers to repeat several chapters in the Gospels without any mistakes. They long for the truth as the hart panteth after the water brooks.

Five cents a Sunday from every member of the Reformed Church will realize the policy of the Board, not ten years from now, but this year, of reaching ten million souls with the Gospel of Jesus, the Saviour of the world.

"Like pastor, like people," is an old adage. Let a pastor banish all selfish interests and get the world vision of to-day with its present-day needs, and a revolution will result within his bosom, and subsequently among his people.

Last year the average gift per member in our Church for Foreign Missions was thirty-five cents. Let us make it fifty cents this year.

During the past century three million souls were won for Christ in heathen lands, but in the same period of time two hundred millions were born into the world.

In the mission fields there are signs of promise. We can rest assured that the great nations are casting off the sleep of ages and going forth as a strong man to run a race.

The outlook of missions has never been so hopeful, nor the times so critical. We need to devote the best gifts, the highest agencies, to witness to its power and to represent its claims to an ever-increasing heathen world audience.

At one of the mission stations in Shensi, China, a heathen man was asked if he saw any good points in the Christians. "Yes," he said, "there are three things I am bound to admire: (1) There is no need to watch our crops around their village; (2) they neither sow, sell, nor swallow opium; (3) they cause little trouble in paying their taxes."

HOME MISSIONARY DAY

The Board of Home Missions has designated the First Reformed Church, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Rev. F. S. Bromer, pastor, as the beneficiary of the Home Missionary Day offerings of 1910. This mission has found its field and is working it. Great progress has already been made. Its outlook is bright. It will pay the Reformed Church to invest in this mission liberally.

PHOEBE DEACONESS AND OLD FOLKS HOME.

The illustration below shows a series of three buildings, fronting on Turner street, Allentown, Pa., which it is proposed to erect in the course of years. The first to be erected will be the building on the right. The contract has been awarded. The building will be of granite, with terra-cotta trimming, the cost $33,000, not including fixtures and furnishing. (Toward this sum the Board and Auxiliary have $15,000 in amounts pledged and invested.)

The sketch shows that the Board is planning to make the Home one of the most beautiful institutions of the Reformed Church. The building to be the first erected (that on the right) is to provide home comforts for aged people, men and women. It will be 40x90 feet, on the southeast corner of Turner and Nineteenth streets, the other streets around the block being Chew and Lafayette.

The Home has four ordained deaconesses, who are in constant demand for works of love and mercy. Six aged women are at present cared for in the Home. The Superintendent of the Home is Miss Carrie J. Dreibelbies. Rev. D. E. Schoedler, D. D., 1142 Chew street, is the Treasurer.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

The Board of Home Missions is at present caring for 178 Missions, of which 55 are German, 9 Hungarian and 3 Bohemian

The membership of the English Missions is 15,000; in the Sunday-schools, 23,000; the amount raised for benevolence, $25,000.

Three missions went to self-support, namely, Easton, Pa.; Steelton, Pa., and Lexington, N. C.

NEW MISSIONS ENROLLED SINCE JANUARY 1. 1910.

Bethany, Butler, Pa.; Louisville, Kentucky; Gary, Indiana; Albemarle, N. C.; Harrisonburg, Va.; St. Stephen's, Lebanon, Pa.; Palmerton, Pa.; St. Luke's, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; Japanese Mission on Pacific Coast.

NEARLY THREE HUNDRED.

It is interesting to note the rising figures in our Church-building Fund record. They are rapidly approaching the three hundred mark, a surprise and a delight to all who know their value. In this form about $140,000 of our people's money is now in mission churches.

"The Outlook of Missions," a thirty-two page monthly, at fifty cents a year, published in the interest of home missions and of foreign missions, should be in our families, especially for the sake of our young people.

THE BEST TOOLS AND WAYS.

The farmer gets the best machinery for his work and makes many changes in methods. So does the manufacturer. And so the congregation should do. We need the best possible plans for reaching and teaching the people. We need mission study classes and church work conventions. We need missionary books and papers. Adopt whatever new method or means promises better results. Our fathers did well with the old, but God expects us to do better with the new. The old was from the Lord, but so is the new.

Any person wishing to know more about the several causes presented on the foregoing pages will do well to subscribe for and read the "Reformed Church Messenger."

MEN AND THE MINISTRY.

There never was a time when men, strong men, men of faith, of intellect, of will and character, were more needed in the ministry than to-day. There are many vacant pulpits in the Reformed Church; new Reformed churches should be founded in many towns and cities in different quarters of this country. We owe it as a duty to the Church, to our country and to the Lord above, to help make this land Christian and keep it so. We cannot as a church do our full measure of work unless we have more men in the ministry. The Church, therefore, calls for volunteers.

There never was a time when the call to the ministry was so inviting. There is a great moral, religious and missionary revival at work in the world to-day. The Church has come to her own again. The opportunity of the ministry is here and now. There never was a time when ability and spiritual power in the pulpit commanded such attention. The Church was never more aggressive in philanthropy and in social and missionary efforts. The church never discharged so many different important functions.

Fathers and mothers, listen to the Church's appeal and consecrate your sons to the high calling of the ministry. Young men, your Master calls you. He needs strong men and the very best. The Church is proud to-day of its great host of splendid, faithful men. But let us be warned. If only inferior young men enter the ministry, if the churches are manned by weaklings, she will not produce in the next generation a similar type of men. The Church needs the very best. She needs you.

MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Our government cares for her aged and disabled soldiers. Of that we all approve. Most European cities have established old-age pensions, and pensions for disabled working men. The Church surely should not lag behind the state in gratitude and benevolence. It should be her bounden duty, her privilege, to maintain in simple comfort her aged and disabled ministers. Every congregation, once each year, should take up an offering for their support. Men and women of means should contribute generously to our Relief Societies while they live and remember them in their wills at death.

The Reformed Church has two Relief Societies. The oldest institution in the Church is the Society for the Relief of Ministers and their Widows. Last year it assisted twenty-seven ministers and fifty widows of ministers to the extent of $5,105. During the past twenty-five years it has expended in the way of relief to over fifty ministers and over one hundred widows more than $75,000. The treasurer of this Society is Rev. S. S. Miller, of Frederick, Md.

The other Society is the Board of Ministerial Relief, and was erected by the General Synod for the purpose of supporting any minister of the whole Reformed Church who is disabled or in need. The assistance given either to ministers or widows is not charity dispensed to the unfortunate, but a recognition for service well done. One who has served the Church in the day of his strength has a right to her help in his day of weakness and suffering. The treasurer of this Society is Rev. John M. Schick, D. D., Washington, D. C.

When the Church ordains a man to the Gospel ministry, she says to him: "You minister to us in spiritual things and we will care for you in material things." "Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel." 1 Cor. ix. 14. "But whoso hath this world's goods, and seeth his brother hath need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?"

THINGS OLD AND NEW.

Some persons are forever objecting to anything new in the Church. They want to cling to the old ideas, old modes of operation, old arrangements, old everything. They are willing to employ new machinery in their worldly occupations, whatever they may be, and adopt new processes; but nothing new shall be introduced into the church. To that they object. Their plea is that what their fathers and grandfathers did is good enough for them. The plan of weekly offerings and the duplex envelope for gathering these offerings has lately been introduced into the churches; but there are those who object. They want no new modes of operation. No matter how much better the new may be, how much more scriptural and Christian and reasonable, they oppose it because it is new. Nevertheless, the work of the Church goes forward.

Be Christians—not in order to be happy, because people who come into the Christian Church expecting to be happy are frequently disappointed. Do not be a Christian in order to please any human being. Do not be a Christian simply in order to save yourself from some punishment that may overtake you in some coming world. Be a Christian, as Jesus asks you to be a Christian, so that you may be a co-worker with Him in bringing a wicked world back to the Father's throne.

THE NEW Testament

Illustrated

Something Interesting and Worthy of Notice

To include the Holy Scriptures in the list of bargains does not seem appropriate. The Bible never becomes cheap and commonplace and should never be made to appear so by the publishers. This, however, does not refer to the binding.

In book making the binding is one of the main items of cost. A beautifully bound volume usually means a high price. In this, as in many other things, the smaller objects have a certain advantage. In this utilitarian age, remnants figure very largely in determining values and many small volumes are bound in fine materials and sold at low prices, because the "odds and ends" are utilized. This refers especially to books bound in leather. The small pieces—the left overs—after the skins have been cut for larger volumes, furnish excellent material for the smaller.

In this way the publishers have produced a pocket Testament—beautifully bound in leather at a remarkably low price. Only a few hundred naturally can be manufactured at a time. We have purchased one hundred copies which we can afford to sell at 30 cents, postpaid for single copies, or 25 cents, postpaid in lots of five or over.

INDIVIDUAL Private Communion Service

For several years there has been a demand for a Private Communion Service embodying the individual idea. Pastors frequently are called upon to administer the Lord's Supper to members who desire to commune with the person who is sick, and it often happens that they must pass from one house to another in administering private communions, and the conveniences are not always at hand to cleanse the cup.

The need of a thoroughly sanitary private communion service has been recognized for a long time by manufacturers of communion ware, but how to make a service practical in size and arrangement proved rather difficult of solution. Recently we were called into consultation on the subject with one of the leading firms in Philadelphia, and the services offered for sale embody the practical ideas of pastors and manufacturer.

LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE

Suppose the Government should make you this proposition:
"Deposit at your Post Office a small portion of your salary each year, for 20 years, and the Government will guarantee you

- "1. After 20 years, AN ANNUAL INCOME FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE.
- "2. Should you become totally and permanently disabled at any time during the 20 years, YOU WILL BE IMMEDIATELY PENSIONED FOR LIFE.
- "3. If you die during the 20 years, $5,000 WILL BE PAID TO YOUR FAMILY ; if after the 20 years, $5,000, less the sum of the income already paid to you."

Wouldn't you jump at the chance? Life would take on a new aspect, wouldn't it? Well, the Government isn't in that business. But it IS our business, and WE make you the offer HERE and NOW! Back of our guarantee are twenty million dollars of assets and a thirty-two years' record of just dealing; back of these, the supervision of forty-three State Governments. Safe enough, don't you think?
